

Journalism Internship Positions

General: The Ze' deM Media Internship program is designed to offer hands-on experience for college students that are seeking a career in the Media and Communications industries.

Ze' deM Media is a Larnaca based company offering video production and editing services. The interns working for the company mainly focus on the production of a collection of short documentary style videos for KiprosTV. A video based website aiming to support the Arts & Culture of Cyprus. This internship will help develop your practical, writing and broadcast journalism skills as well as your editorial judgment.

Eligibility: You must be registered as a Junior, Senior, or Graduate Student in good standing at an accredited college or university. The registration must apply for the full duration of the internship.

Responsibilities: Research and develop story ideas, gather content, write stories, select photos and make editorial decisions. At times you may also assist the director in creating videos though conducting on-site interviews and preparing subtitles for the post-production team.

Qualifications: The selected students who will receive this internship should have an interest in current affairs especially those related to the arts and culture scene of Cyprus. Other important areas of interest are multiculturalism and/or climate change. The interns should have a passion for reporting/interviewing and hold excellent telephone and interpersonal skills, good organizational aptitude, good writing skills and excellent research skills via print, phone and web-based sources. Must have computer and typing skills, good judgment, creativity and ability to work in a fast-paced environment. Familiarity with Google Docs and being multilingual is an advantage but not a requirement for this position.

To apply: Email your resume along with a cover letter to info@zedem.net with attention to Michael Kalopedis. For hard copy applications to P.O. Box 41131 Larnaca, 6309 Cyprus.

Note: Interns are considered trainees and not employees. Ze' deM Media reserves the right to terminate a student's internship at any point for reasons such as misconduct, poor attendance, insubordination or other serious problems.
